

Dear FCC,
I just want to say that I support XM and all of satellite radio in all issues, including the issue with the Traffic and Weather Stations. What is really the difference between this and satellite television and their local stations? Thank you, Michael Lindeen